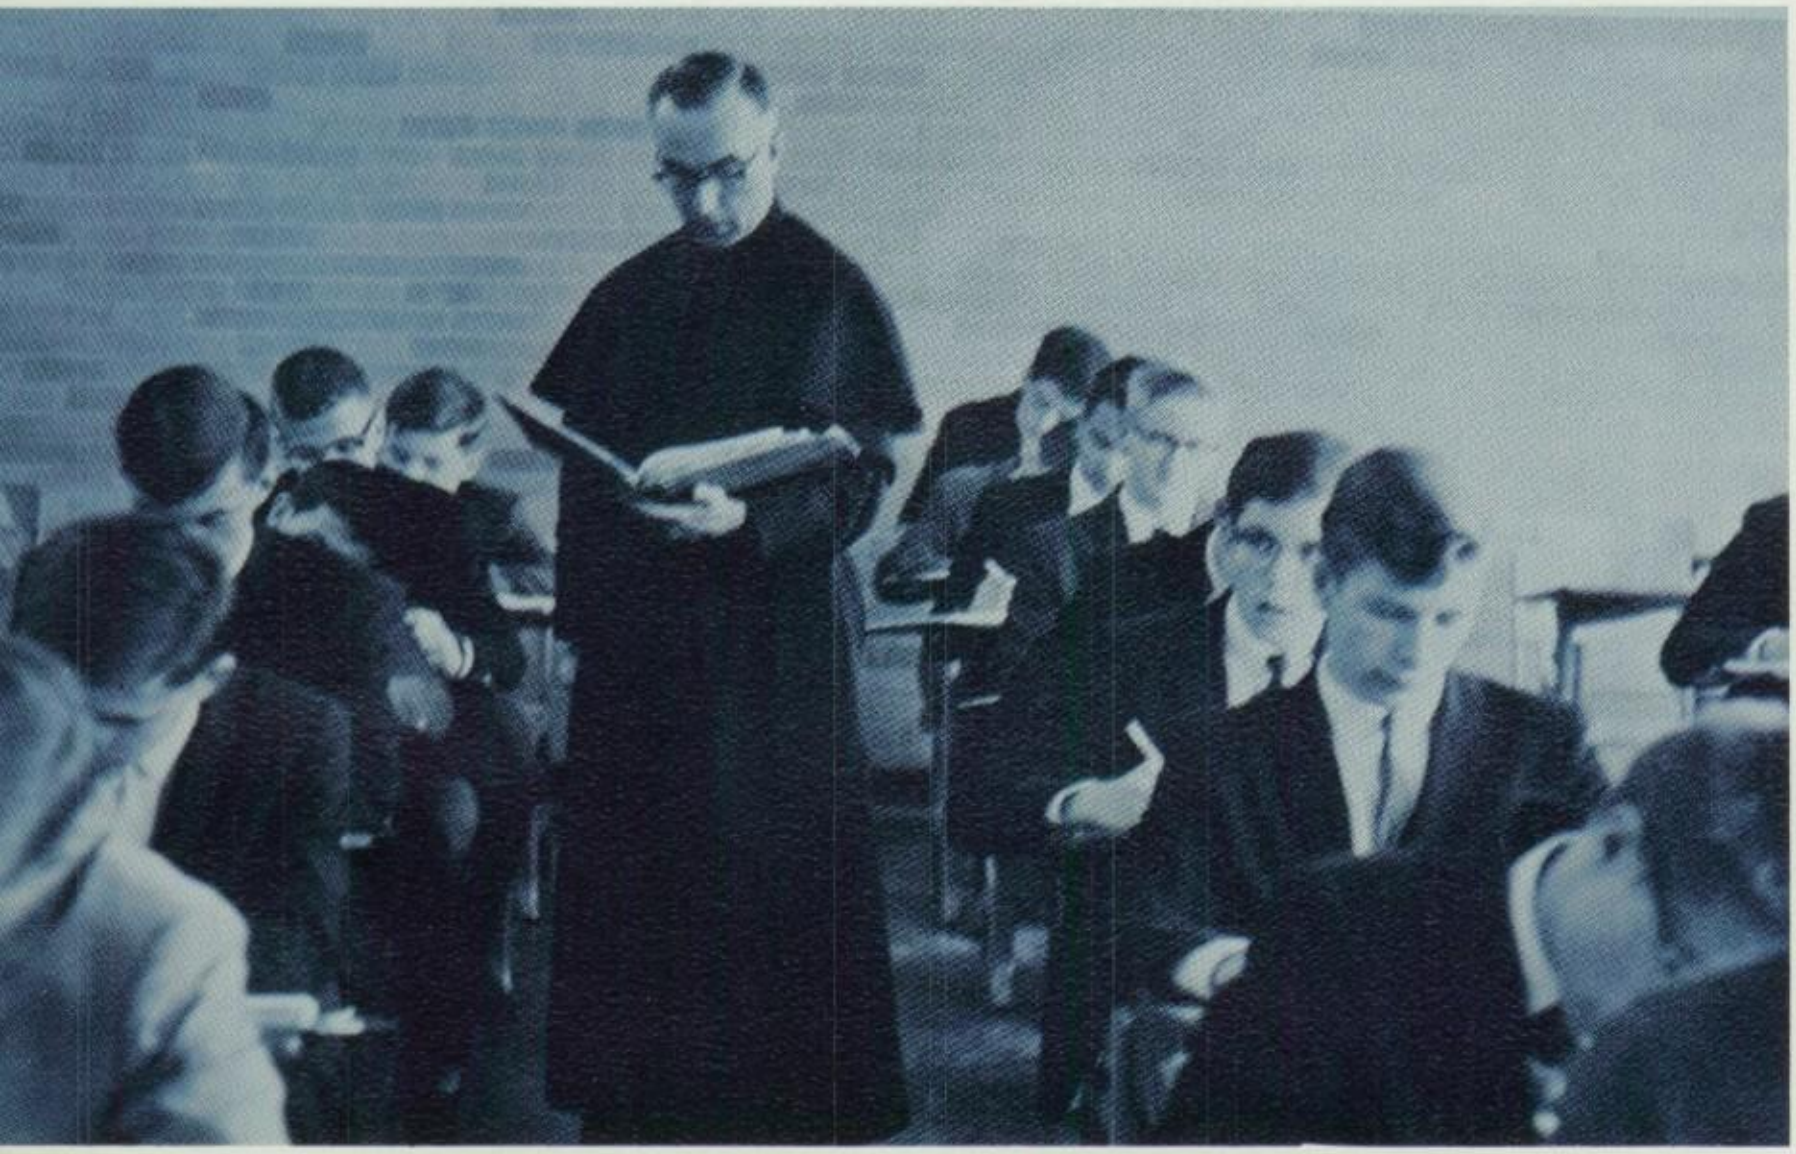
Dedication

Ten years have passed since the doors of the Prep first opened. At that time, the Rev. Francis M. Gaetano, S.A.C. came as one of the founding Fathers. Of that original group of Fathers, Fr. Frank is the only one who is still at Eustace. It is truly fitting then that we, the Class of 1965, dedicate this, our Yearbook, to Fr. Frank.

It must be noted, however, that this dedication is not rendered to Father simply because he has been able to withstand the ravages of time and has persevered here for these ten years. Rather, this is rendered to Father because of the extraordinary influence and effect Fr. Frank has exerted upon us while here at Eustace.

Fr. Frank has seen B. E. grow from a mere handful of young and eager boys to well over five hundred. This man, in the service of God and men, has worked faithfully, albeit quietly and unobtrusively, to bring us through the transformation to manhood. His dedication, earnestness, zeal and love of God and the Prep have been an integral part of our development.

Fr. Frank is truly deserving of this recognition for the fine work that he has done for everyone in the last decade. However, this is most especially true for the image and guidance shown to us, the Class of 1965, in our short and ever mindful sojourn at the Prep.



MOST REVEREND BARTHOLOMEW J. EUSTACE, D.D.

First Bishop of the Diocese of Camden

The education of youth has been a primary objective of man throughout the ages. The ultimate purpose of this was the satisfaction of the mental and physical needs of the individual. Not Only wishing to satisfy these needs, but also to develop spiritually the minds of young men, the Pallottine Fathers set out to establish an institution of learning. It was with this in mind that the Society of Catholic Apostolate received permission from his Excellency, the Most Reverend Bartholomew J. Eustace D.D., to establish such an institution in the Diocese of Camden.

Four men pioneered the beginnings of Bishop Eustace Prep. Under the direction of Fr. Mark Martorelli, together with Fr. Frank Gaetano, Fr. Michael Parente, and Fr. Alexander Zichello, Bishop Eustace became reality.

With the faculty housed in the old Clubhouse along with the Cafeteria, a chapel in the basement, and two classrooms in the old locker rooms, the Prep proudly opened its doors to 92 boys. This was the beginning.

From that time a classroom building, a gymnasium and a cafeteria were added, the old Clubhouse was torn down, and in 1962 a tri-unit building, the Faculty House, Chapel and Seminary, was erected, giving us Bishop Eustace Prep as it is now. The old Faculty House remains dormant, only as a stimulant for the future. The near future has a school extension in its plans.

Such is the account of the history of the Bishop Eustace complex. To express the growth and expansion of Bishop Eustace Prep School would, indeed, take much more than this space affords.

Requiescat in Pace

In September of 1963 Jack Bristow entered Bishop Eustace Prep. In March of 1964 he suffered an accident which hospitalized him until his death in April of 1965.

Jack Bristow, despite his age, was a man. He had the admirable traits of maturity, perseverance, leadership, and was always striving for perfection in anything he attempted. Popularity, academic, and athletic achievement were his. He was school-spirited, and in fact his accident occured after leaving a basketball game. He was completely honest, always calling a spade a spade. In short, Jack Bristow was a model Bishop Eustace Prep student. All that should be accomplished in four years, he attained in the few months that he was here. He should be held as an example to all B.E. students.

May he rest in peace.

Foreword

Where there exists a graduate today, so there exists a man tomorrow. What is a vivid reality in the mind of today's graduate will be but a vaguely memorable obscurity in the mind to tomorrow's man. You have probably guessed already that the graduate and the man are one and the same person. In truth, he is you; any student, any graduate, of Bishop Eustace Prep. He is, however, more than just a student, just a graduate, just a man. He is an individual whose memories of elation and sorrow are his own personal memories and are unique only to himself.

It is with sincere pride that we, the editors, present the 1965 CRUSADER in the hopes that each of its pages will provide a personal and lasting remembrance for every man who desires to look back with genuine interest and pride to his years at Bishop Eustace Prep.

Teamwork!

The '65 Crusaders enjoyed a fine season under the guidance of their new mentor, Mr. Ungaro. Again competing on a top level of football, B.E., led by co-captains Jim King and Bob Smith fared well-all things considered. A scrappy Eustace team fought to a 4-3-2 final record.

Eustace got off to its finest start in many years with a lopsided 35-0 win over St. Joe's of Camden. The only discouraging note however, was the loss of Skip Neri for six weeks. Eustace then fought Audubon to a 6-6 tie, but rebounded and beat Pennsauken 7-0 in a rugged defensive game.

The Crusaders journeyed to Paulsboro only to suffer a 25-0 setback. The team took its worst physical beating of the year with injuries which would influence the outcome of future contests.

Against Camden Catholic B.E. fell to the Irish, 13-0. In a wild display of offensive power on both sides, B.E. had to settle for a 26-26 tie with Notre Dame of Trenton. Eustace then proceeded to roll over Haddon Twp., 25-7.

In the eighth game of the season, the Eustace eleven played three fine quarters of football against an undefeated Cherry Hill squad. But as physical endurance will have it, the Lions' depth was too much for our team.

As a climax to the season, Eustace defeated the favored Gloucester Catholic Rams 20-7 with a sound running game and tight pass defense. This game marked the first time since the opening of the football season that the Crusaders were again in full force, and also the first time B.E. triumphed over the Rams.

The B.E. Cross Country team experienced a rather disappointing season this year, acquiring a 3-7 won-loss record.

After losing their first three meets, the Crusaders looked like they were coming to life. Led by senior Ed Myers who placed first in every meet except the Camden County event, Bob Purdy, Bob Mulford, Harry Jackson and Junior Bob Schuler, Eustace scored big victories over Camden High and Camden Catholic.

Although the spirit was high, the Crusaders could achieve only one victory in the last five meets. That victory was a near perfect win, 43-16, over Gloucester Catholic.

With the return of Schuler, Eddy, Casey and Furey, the hopes for a good season next year are high for B.E.'s harriers.

Basketball

The '64-'65 basketball season contained a variety of highlights and much excitement for the Crusaders' fans. Playing against the toughest competition in the area, Eustace compiled a 13-10 record and had the distinction of playing in the South Jersey Parochial A finale.

Led by the all-round play of Senior Dan Lipinski and Junior Jim Oxley, the Crusaders fought to overcome a definite height deficiency with good defense—a Casey trademark—and were always a threat to the opposing teams. Assisting with the rebounding chores were Junior Bernie Welsh and Soph Ken Sidorewich. On Offense, Eustace continually responded with a balanced attack with Lipinski, Oxley, Beihler, Welsh and Wilson averaging in double figures. The most startling shooting came from Soph Tom Wilson, who caught fire in the tournament, averaging over 15 points per game. Bench strength came specifically from seniors Bill Cahill and Denny Furey.

At the season's outset, Eustace was plagued by hot-and-cold offense while playing .500 ball. During this stretch they beat such powers as Gloucester Catholic, Woodrow Wilson and Camden Catholic, while losing many games by less than 5 points. This type of play characterized the Prepsters until the final stretch when they finally showed their ability by beating St. Joe's, Pennsauken, Salesianum and Notre Dame to enter the State Tourney with a darkhorse 11-9 log.

In the opener, Eustace met Trenton Cathedral and won a hard fought game to gain a rubber match with St. Joe's. The Crusaders overwhelmed the Bisons by fifteen points to enter the S.J. final against C.B.A. Down by fifteen at the half, the Crusaders fought back to take the lead with less than two minutes remaining but fell in the last few seconds.

Although not one of our best seasons, the team played some good, clean basketball and continued to make the student body proud of them.

Wrestling

The Wrestling Team at B.E. in its secon season under Coach Bill Kelly, Sr., started off slowly losing 7 of its first 8 meets. The lone victory came over Sterling by a score of 31-23. The team then caught fire defeating Clearview, Mainland and Camden Catholic in its last six meets.

The team was led by co-captains Bill Kelly Jr. and Jim King, both Seniors who in 26 regular season matches lost only two. Bill, top-seeded in the District Tourney, had a 12-2-0 record, while King third-seeded in the Districts was undefeated with a 10-0-2 record.

Others with winning records were Seniors Mike Keegan (7-3-1), Bob Mulford (9-2-2) and Junior Tom Zeberlein (8-4-0).

THE VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM

Standing: Mr. Schillig, N. Beihler, C. Mitcho, J. Bloomingdale, J. Lawler, B. Biehl, A. Severin, R. Duffield, G. Meloni, Mr. O'Connor.

Kneeling: J. Borland mgr., B. Furey, F. Meschini, M. Riley, N. Neri, G. Bailey, M.V.P. M. McHugh, B. Hinkle mgr.

Bob takes the throw at first for the third out.

This year's baseball team was probably the most unpredictable ever fielded at B.E. by Coach Bill Schillig. While sometimes playing like champs and other times like losers, the Crusaders could not maintain the consistency needed for a winning ball club. They finished with a mediocre, but not shameful, 8-9 record.

Since bad starts seem to be "in" with B.E. baseball teams, the '65 team was not disappointing, losing their first four games despite good pitching by Glen Meloni, Joe Lawler, M.V.P. Mike McHugh, and strong relief pitching by Fe Meschini. After a come-from-behind win over Haddon Twp., the hitters came alive to power Eustace to four consecutive victories. Usually leading the attack were Ray Duffield, George Bailey, and Joe Lawler. Andy Severin, Duffield, Bailey, and Jim Oxley sparkled in the field.

But after proving they were no pushovers, the Crusaders began playing a little radically and finished the remainder of the season under .500, failing to qualify for the state tourney by one game.

"Hey, Mr. Schillig, how did this happen?"

M.V.P. Mike McHugh on the mound.

"Got it"

"Yo Coach, this is much better."

B.E.'s leading hitter Ray Duffield.

Bottom Row: K. Santry, W. Nowak, N. Petroni, A. Grohe, M. Maiatico, J. Lazo, M. Hoey, D. Patrician, J. Mullin, R. Olsen, G. McWilliams.
Top Row: R. Schuler, J. Eddy, R. Carroll, M. McDonald, E. Myers, J. Conroy, M. Wells, C. Bruno, J. Casey, B. Purdy, K. Stuart. Coach: Mr. Cianfrani.

After a long, hard season the B.E. cindermen hung up their spikes and as the record shows, throughout the season, they felt the sting of defeat. Time and again the lack of depth crippled them. However, there was always hope, and the final outcome was well worth waiting for.

In the Camden County and The Knights of Columbus meets, Eustace topped many schools who had previously topped the Prep during the season. These fine results were due to the efforts of our fine seniors.

Our runner of the year, holder of the school record in the mile, 880, and 440, Ed Myers could always be counted on for a first place in whichever event he entered.

Second in line and holder of two school records was Mike Wells in the high and low hurdles. Mike McDonald was Eustace's strongman, placing in the shot put, discus, and javelin categories. Another record holder is Chip Bruno who high jumps. Also to help out in the field events was Jim Yurkonis, a late season entry. Bob Purdy and Walt Nowack dominated the ¼ mile, and Freshman Marc Maiatico was Eustace's top sprinter.

All underclassmen play an important role for they are the future stars and record holders. In addition to Maiatico, Ken Stuart, Jim Kenneally, Bob Schuler and John Casey were valuable members of the team.

The End?

It is with much personal satisfaction to both myself and my assistant editors, Phil Coyle and Dennis Grimmett that the 1965 CRUSADER was finished. But for each and every one of you it is just the beginning. Every event and incident captured in the pages of this book will take place year after year. Although they might appear different, they are basically the same. So it is true that this book is not the end, but only the beginning.

It was my main purpose in editing this book to capture every event possible during the year, to give full coverage to every club, organization, and activity which any member of the student body was active in. It was not my intention to make this my book, but to make it yours.

The staff, especially Phil and Dennis, is deserving of recognition for the work and amount of time they spent in trying to cover the events of B.E. '65 for you.

Father Angelo should especially be thanked for his guidance in helping us to complete and present to you the finest yearbook possible for all of B.E.

Thankfully,

Anthony Ziccardi

Editor-in-Chief.
